THE

WISCONSIN

JOURNAL OF EDUCATION:

THE ORGAN OF THE

State Teachers' Association,

AND OF THE

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

EDITORIAL COMMITTEE.

Rev. J. B. PRADT, Sheboygan.
JNO. G. M'MYNN, Racine.
J. L. PICKARD, Platteville.
O. M. CONOVER, Madison.
A. PICKETT, Horicon.
A. J. CRAIG, Palmyra.
LEVI CASS, Janesville.
Mrs. H. S. ZOLLER, Portage City.
Miss E. L. BISSELL, Hartford.
Miss H. A. EVERTS, Milwaukee.
Miss E. B. LOWBER, Janesville.
Miss M. A. ROBERTS, Whitewater.

RESIDENT EDITOR: A. J. CRAIG, PALMYRA.

VOLUME III.

MADISON, WIS.:
ATWOOD & RUBLEE BOOK AND JOB PRINTERS.
1859.

F902
.7W8

TABLE OF CONTENTS.

	Page.
A
Æsthetic education,	231, 368
A development of the fundamental notions of grammar,	269, 301
Admirable use of a magnet,	77
After the rain,	342
Always teaching,	308
American normal school association,	144
An incident in school government,	7
A perfect school system,	97
Aspects of education,	1
At Rugby,	369
A valuable table,	284
C
Cheerfulness,	184
Children,	243
Columbia co. teachers' association,	180
Communications in school,	37
Composition as a daily exercise in school,	166
D
Difficulties,	165
E
EDITORIAL MISCELLANY, 29, 62, 94, 122, 157, 190, 221, 249 285, 319, 345, 377.
Education a mental possession,	193
Errors in the mode of teaching English grammar,	170
Essay on normal schools,	134
Extracts from the autocrat of the breakfast table,	152
F
Failures,	361
Female teachers and their salaries,	107, 169
Fitchburg schools,	72
G
Girls' Schools,	33
Grammar in rhyme,	315
Greatness,	27
H
Henry Barnard, LL.D.,	225
Hymn of the Marsellaise,	244
I
Improprieties of speech,	75
L
Letter for the little folks,	247, 281, 316
LITERARY NOTICES,	64, 96, 127, 160, 205, 325, 383
M
MATHEMATICAL DEPARTMENT, 60, 93, 120, 156, 217, 282, 317, 343, 372
Miss Kindly's method of teaching children to read,	295
Modesty preferred to death,	118
Monograph of the verb,	40
Moral and religious instruction in common schools,	20, 49, 80, 114
Mother! let us pray!	117
My boy at home,	53
N
National teachers' association,	108
Night,	371
Normal schools,	73, 146, 375
Now I lay me down to sleep,	57
O
Obituary—Mrs. E. W. McMynn,	32
Old Hundred,	240
Our school house,	188
P
Parental responsibility,	324
Physical education,	327
Primary schools,	161, 366
R
Reading,	262, 267, 328
Reference,	43
Report on revision of the school law,	129
Ripon teachers' association,	179, 285
Rockford schools,	10
Romance,	339
Rulers of the world for 1859,	245
S
School government,	326
Schools in Greenbush,	46
Schools in Sauk co.,	44
School superintendency,	14
Shakspeare,	277
Some of the things we teach children,	263
Spelling,	167, 233
St. George and Amerigo Vespucci,	242
State teachers' association—proceedings of annual meeting,	84
Steam fire-engines,	208
Summer land,	213
SUPERINTENDENT'S DEPARTMENT, 16. 47, 78, 113, 147, 213, 237, 274, 309, 329
T
Tardiness,	237
Teaching the alphabet,	163
Teaching reading,	45
To a group of school children,	279
To parents,	74
Topical recitation,	257, 298, 353
The builders,	119
The Burns' prize poem,	311
The first day of summer,	370
The London Times log,	371
The mediatorial office,	260
The model teacher	289
The relations of the sexes,	242

The school system of Basle in Switzerland, 67
The smack in school, 189
The Strasburg clock, 15
The teacher as a man, 65
The teacher's reward. 54, 106
The true order of studies, 321, 357
The want and the remedy, 23
Trustees of insane hospital, 341
Two ways of telling the same story, 59

U

Uncle Sam's school, 154

V

Variety, 232
Visit your schools, 105

W

Watch the main spring, 33
Watertown schools, 71
Waupaca teachers' association, 180
Waushara co. teachers' institute, 182
What is life? 186